Bill Fishman graduated law school in 1972 and received a Masters of Laws (Taxation) from New York University School of Law in 1976. From 1972 to 1977, he served as a Senior Trial Attorney for the United States Treasury Department, representing the Commissioner of Internal Revenue in the United States Tax Court. Bill has spent over 30 years in the tax field, representing public companies and individual entrepreneurs. He has handled matters in all areas of taxation – corporate and individual income tax, estate and gift taxes, tax exempt entities, partnerships and limited liability companies.

Bill prides himself in caring about his clients – the individuals behind the legal matter. He is creative in finding solutions to problems – whether it is discovered in the details or stepping back in order to see the “big picture” or simply taking a fresh, practical view of a situation.
